“At the appointed place they built the altar and laid the wood upon it. Then, with trembling voice, Abraham unfolded to his son the divine message. It was with terror and amazement that Isaac learned his fate, but he offered no resistance. He could have escaped his doom, had he chosen to do so; the grief-stricken old man, exhausted with the struggle of those terrible days, could not have opposed the will of the vigorous youth. But Isaac had been trained from childhood to ready, trusting obedience, and as the purpose of God was opened before him, he yielded a willing submission” (Patriarchs and Prophets, p. 152).

did you know?

The name Isaac means “he will laugh.” It is the name given to him by his father, Abraham. Laughter was a theme in the birth of Isaac. You may remember that when God told Abraham that Sarah would have a son, he fell facedown with laughter (see Genesis 17:16, 17). When Sarah found out about the promise, she too burst out laughing. Isn’t it great to see into the Bible characters’ personalities? However, God didn’t find their laughter at His words funny.

INTO THE STORY

“Now the Lord was gracious to Sarah as he had said, and the Lord did for Sarah what he had promised. Sarah became pregnant and bore a son to Abraham in his old age, at the very time God had promised him. Abraham gave the name Isaac to the son Sarah bore him. When his son Isaac was eight days old, Abraham circumcised him, as God commanded him. Abraham was a hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him.”

“Some time later God tested Abraham. He said to him, ‘Abraham!’

“‘Here I am,’ he replied.

“Then God said, ‘Take your son, your only son, Isaac, whom you love, and go to the region of Moriah. Sacrifice him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains I will tell you about.’

“Early the next morning Abraham got up and saddled his donkey. He took with him two of his servants and his son Isaac. When he had cut enough wood for the burnt offering, he set out for the place God had told him about. On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place in the distance. He said to his servants, ‘Stay here with the donkey while I and the boy go over there. We will worship and then we will come back to you.’

“Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and placed it on his son Isaac, and he himself carried the fire and the knife. As the two of them went on together, Isaac spoke up and said to his father Abraham, ‘Father?’

“‘Yes, my son?’ Abraham replied.

“‘The fire and wood are here,’ Isaac said, ‘but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?’

“Abraham answered, ‘God himself will provide the lamb for the burnt offering, my son.’ And the two of them went on together. When they reached the place God had told him about, Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood on it. He bound his son Isaac and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood. Then he reached out his hand and took the knife to slay his son. But the angel of the Lord called out to him from heaven, ‘Abraham! Abraham!’

“‘Here I am,’ he replied.

“‘Do not lay a hand on the boy,’ he said. ‘Do not do anything to him. Now I know that you fear God, because you have not withheld from me your son, your only son.’”

(Genesis 21:1-5; 22:1-12, NIV)

Sabbath

In the What Do You Think? section of this week's lesson you are asked to list some of the sacrifices made by great men and women of history. The Merriam Webster's online dictionary has three definitions for the word "sacrifice." The third definition is striking: "Destruction or surrender of something for the sake of something else." When one makes a sacrifice, it is done because one values something else more than the thing they had to sacrifice.

In your own words, explain what Abraham valued more than the life of his young son, Isaac?

Sunday

Read the story of Abraham and Isaac again in the Bible passage for this week. Pay special attention to Genesis 22:3. What person has taught you the most about what it means to sacrifice? What have you learned from them?

The phrase "early the next morning" in this verse should make you pause. It hints at a very important part of what it means to be obedient to God. When God asks us to do something—even when it is difficult—we must never hesitate to comply. To do so is to disobey.

Give three reasons Abraham could have used to avoid obeying God:

Monday

If you read the Key Text for this week's lesson you had to say, "Wow, that was a close one!" In the nick of time, God spoke from heaven and stopped Abraham, providing a ram for the sacrifice.

Does God always come right on time? To answer this question, read the story found in John 11:17-37. Am I willing to trust God even when He seemingly fails to show up in time to meet my need?

Tuesday

Read the Flashlight quotation. Which of the following would best describe what you might have said to your father:

- a. "Are you crazy?"
- b. "There's no way I'm letting you kill me!"
- c. "Give me a few minutes, Dad. I'll go find you a ram."
- d. "If this is what God wants, then I'll do it."

God will test us from time to time. Read John 6:5, 6. What test did God give His disciples? How did they do? Did God give up on them?

Wednesday

Read Matthew 26:39 from the Punch Lines section of the lesson.

Jesus was so pained by the sacrifice that lay before Him that the blood came through His pores, quite a rare medical condition. Jesus persevered out of His love for us. Read the other Punch Lines for this week and answer the following:

What is promised to those who persevere in trials?

If you used your faith, you would be able to move.

We are to trust God with how much of our hearts?

Thursday

Obedience to God requires faith, and faith is demonstrated through obedience. God has made several requests of His people. One of them is found in Mark 8:34. Followers of God must be willing to do something. What is that?

Try this today: Identify one bad habit that you'd like to change—wasting time watching too much TV, swearing, getting too angry, talking back to your parents, procrastination, etc. Write that bad habit down on a piece of paper along with what you want God to do with it. Then pray, asking God for strength to sacrifice this habit for His glory. Find a safe place to burn this prayer request. Start overcoming your bad habit today by doing one thing to change it. (For instance, if anger is your challenge, begin the change by asking a cool-headed adult how they stay calm.)

Friday

What does Abraham's relationship with Isaac teach you about the kind of relationship God wants to have with you?

What are you willing to do to develop a closer walk with God?

If you want a closer relationship with God, ask Him for it right now.
